PLAYING WITH PASSION AND A LOVE OF THE GAME: PUSHING THE BALL AND AGGRESSIVELY ATTACKING THE BASKET; FINDING THE OPEN TEAMMATE; CHANGING DEFENSE AND DISRUPTING THE RHYTHM OF THE OPPONENTS; SINKING THE OPEN 3-POINTER; AND HELPING OUT TEAMMATES

When you add those components together, they add up to Iowa basketball, a style of basketball that is all-out fun for 40 minutes, a style of play that is exciting to watch, but more importantly, a style of basketball that players love to play.

As the Iowa Hawkeyes head into the 2014-15 season, the fifth year under coach Fran McCaffery and his coaching staff, Iowa basketball is in the midst of a new era that features exciting and fun basketball that players enjoy playing and fans enjoying watching.

"Hawkeye fans and our players will enjoy our style of basketball. We are going to compete and play the game the right way. We want to play an up-tempo style, push the ball, attack the basket and catch the defense off balance. We want to score in the 80s and 90s. Defensively, we want to change defenses and disrupt rhythm. We want to give Hawkeye fans an exciting style of basketball to watch. Our players are going to have fun and enjoy what they do on the floor."

"We have a solid foundation and a tremendous environment to work with as we look to build on our 23 NCAA Tournament appearances and two Big Ten Tournament championships. We embrace the Hawkeye tradition and look forward to the challenges ahead."

FRAN MCCAFFERY
Head Coach
University of Iowa

McCaffery took over the Iowa basketball program in 2010 after rebuilding three basketball programs (Lehigh, UNC-Greensboro and Siena) as a head coach. McCaffery became just the 12th Division I coach to take four different programs (Iowa, Siena, UNC Greensboro and Lehigh) to the NCAA Tournament. He is the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues.

McCaffery has one of the most experienced coaching staffs in the nation at the University of Iowa. Kirk Speraw, Sherman Dillard, Andrew Francis, and Billy Taylor have over seven decades of combined coaching experience.

In five seasons as the head coach at Siena, McCaffery led his team to an average of better than 22 victories per year, including back-to-back 27-win campaigns in 2009 and 2010. He led the Saints to three straight regular season championships and NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-10).

Ten of McCaffery's 18 teams boasted third place or better finishes in their respective conference, including capturing league titles four times. McCaffery coached teams have competed in six NCAA Tournaments and three NIT's.

Consider these facts about Fran McCaffery and his coaching career:

He was named MAAC Coach of the Year in 2009 and District I Coach of the Year in 2010 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches

McCaffery has posted eight 20-win seasons as a head coach, including six of the last eight years.

Iowa placed sixth in the challenging Big Ten in 2013 and 2014, giving McCaffery 14 upper division finishes in 18 years as a head coach.

The Hawkeyes were ranked in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.

Led Iowa to 25 victories in 2013, equaling its second-highest total in school history, while also winning a school-record 18 home games.

In 18 years as a head coach, has led his teams to five conference tournament championships and eight postseason appearances.

2014-15*THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
ONE OF THE NATION'S VERY BEST

Iowa City, Iowa. It is the home for one of the nation's leading public universities, the University of Iowa.

It's also the home of one of the nation's most successful college basketball programs, the Iowa Hawkeyes.

23 NCAA Tournament appearances • 3 Final Fours • 8 Sweet Sixteens • 4 Elite Eights • 8 Big Ten Championships

HERE IS A SAMPLING OF IOWA'S MOST RECENT SUCCESS:

Iowa basketball posted seven straight winning seasons between 2000-07, including 25 victories in 2006, second most in school history. Along with winning the 2006 Big Ten Conference Tournament, Iowa placed second during the regular season, just one game out of first place.

The Hawkeyes won all 17 home games in 2006, posting the first-ever perfect record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa has posted a 103-39 record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena over the past eight seasons, including a 32-8 mark the last two years. Iowa won a school-record 18 home games in 2013.

Iowa advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2014, and reached the NIT in 2012 and 2013 (runner-up).

Iowa has appeared in the NCAA Tournament 20 times over the past 36 years. The Hawkeyes have made three appearances in the NCAA Final Four and have advanced to the Sweet 16 three times since 1987.

The seven winningest seasons in Iowa basketball history, 30 wins in 1987, 25 wins in 2013 and 2006, 24 wins in 1988 and 23 wins in 1989, 1993, 1996 and 2001, are an indication of the past successes of Iowa basketball. Iowa has posted 20 or more wins in 10 of the past 19 seasons!

Leading the Hawkeye program is head coach Fran McCaffery, who guided Iowa to the postseason the last three years with an NCAA Tournament berth and two trips to the NIT, including a runner-up finish in 2013. McCaffery led three former teams to conference championships and five NCAA Tournaments. He was tabbed the 2009 MAAC Coach of the year and 2010 NABC District I Coach of the Year. In 18 years as a college head coach, McCaffery's teams have averaged 18 wins per year. While at Siena, the Saints averaged over 22 wins during his tenure.

IOWA BASKETBALL: GREAT SUCCESS AND GREAT TRADITION

During the 2001-02 season, the University of Iowa celebrated 100 Years of Basketball. Iowa's basketball history includes 76 winning seasons, including 25 years in which the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games.

ESPN released its 2009 college basketball encyclopedia and inside it included its ESPN/Sagarin all-time rankings. The University of Iowa's success on the court garnered the program a ranking of No. 10 in the country!

Iowa basketball teams have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 23 times, advancing to the NCAA Final Four in 1955, 1956 and 1980. In fact, Iowa is one of just 40 Division I programs to advance to the NCAA Tournament on more than 20 occasions. In addition, Iowa has made seven appearances in the NIT postseason tournament.

The start of the Iowa basketball program can be traced back to January 18, 1896. On that date, Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus. In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa, 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

From that first game in 1896, the Iowa basketball program has been recognized as one of the best in the nation. Street & Smith's magazine recently selected its "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All Time". In its special publication, the magazine recognized the Iowa program as No. 40 among over 300 Division I programs.

Fran McCaffery Q&A regarding the 2014-15 Season:

Q: You've been blessed to have excellent senior leadership every year since your arrival in Iowa City and this year is no different. What do Gabe, Aaron, and Josh bring to this team as leaders on and off the court?

A: They have the respect of their teammates. What I think is important is they've all produced on the floor and are looked amongst as good players and hard workers. When they speak up in the locker room, their teammates listen. They've produced under pressure and have the credibility, so I know I can trust them. I'm excited those three guys are going to be our leaders this season.

Q: Aaron White is creating quite the legacy, but he's not done yet. What areas of his game do you see him improving upon for this senior season?

A: Last year he was tremendous, but as we played him more minutes, we tired him a little bit. This summer he has been trying to get stronger and get his body ready to endure a long season where he's going to be the marked man and if I need to play him 36 minutes, I can. He may be better off at 32 or 33, which is what his average was last season, but that's because I rested him early in the season. Once we got into Big Ten play, I played him a lot. He's smart and is trying to continue to diversify his game. He knows he can score in transition, get to the free-throw line, post up down low, and can score in a lot of different ways. He's trying to become more consistent with his free throw shooting and his pull-up game. The other thing is, he has always been a steals guy, so we're trying to get him to lock in defensively a little more, and be a little more solid. Once he does that we'll see his rebound numbers go up, and they were good anyway. He's a guy that could be one of the rebounding leaders in our league.

Q: Anthony Clemmons went through some struggles last season; do you expect him to rebound his junior season?

A: He has been a completely different person; physically and mentally. He's playing with confidence, explosiveness, and he's looking for his shot. One of the reasons we recruited him was because he is such a good shooter and scorer. He can do things under pressure; he had a situation last year where he lost confidence a little bit and I don't think you'll see that happening again. You'll see two spectacular years from him.

Q: Each of your teams at Iowa has progressed from the previous year. Is that one of your goals again this season?

A: You want to build a program that consistently wins; in the Big Ten that's an incredible challenge. If you're able to do that, you're in the NCAA Tournament on a regular basis, if you're not, you won't be. You want to be in the NCAA Tournament and be a team that advances. That's everyone's goal in all of the 350-plus NCAA Division I schools. Our league is going to get multiple teams in, which is great, but the difficult part is we have 14 teams and seven or eight that expect to be in it, and that's the challenge before us.

Aaron White

Q: Uthoff seemed to have a terrific offseason. Do you anticipate a more aggressive Jarrod this season?

A: The only thing Jarrod needed was to get a year of college basketball under his belt. He waited a long time for that to happen, he had some great games for us last year, he also had Melsahn Basabe and Zach McCabe in the mix. They're not here now, so he's going to get a lot more opportunities to do a lot more things and be encouraged to do a lot more things as well. Physically, he's in a good place.

Q: What do you like most about the talent you have in the backcourt?

A: We have good versatility and experience with Josh, Mike, and Anthony. We've got Pete (Peter Jok), with the way he came on last year, we've got size. With Pete and Josh (Oglesby) at 6-foot-5, Mike and Anthony can play either spot, we can play Josh and Pete on the wing so they can be a two or a three. We also have Trey (Dickerson), who is bullet quick, and gives you another dimension, especially in pick and roll situations. Brady (Ellingson) is another guy that can shoot the 3 that has an incredible basketball IQ. We've got depth, size, quickness, and shooting.

Q: The 3-ball improved significantly a year ago, you think your guys have the ability to improve upon those numbers and stretch the defense even more this year?

A: When you look at our team collectively, it will happen a number of different ways. It'll start with Mike (Gesell) and Aaron having better 3-point numbers. Josh and Pete will be consistent as well, Brady will be consistent, but the guy that I would like to see take off is Jarrod Uthoff, who had good numbers last year, but I would like to see him shoot more 3's. He's going to be playing a lot more, so he should have that opportunity.

Q: The ability of Woodbury and Olaseni to run the floor is a huge advantage. How do you see them matching up against opponents this year?

A: Both have been good players for us, and you'll see both of them playing better than they have ever played before. They've put the time in and Gabe is a completely different player than he was last year and the year before from a confidence perspective. Woodbury, and the way he finished from last year, has propelled into a summer where he got into it with going overseas. I'm excited about those two guys, and I wouldn't be surprised to see them both on the floor together at some point.

Josh Oglesby

Q: Gabe has added 5-10 pounds of muscle since last season, how much will that benefit him?

A: I believe he'll hold his post position, and it'll help his rebounding. The key thing has always been his running, jumping, and ability to affect the game with his athleticism. The critical thing is that he put on 10 pounds of muscle, and not just 10 pounds.

Q: What impact will the newcomers have this season?

A: They're going to have a huge impact; we're going to need Dom Uhl in particular. He's that versatile 3-4 type player which is perfect for our style of play. I'm excited about him. Trey has a gear that no one else has. I'm excited about him pushing the ball in fast-break situations and finding people up court. Brady gives us an additional weapon from the 3-point line who can also go off the dribble and make plays.

Q: Who does Dom remind you of at this stage of his career?

A: He can do a lot of the things that Aaron White does because he goes off of the dribble and makes plays for people. He flies down the floor so he has a lot of three-man skills and instincts, but he rebounds like a four. A lot of the players around the perimeter don't like to rebound and they are only reasonably effective. If you're a big three, take advantage of your size and rebound the way White, Uthoff, and Dom does. That's what I love about those guys; they can play the three or four and you can have a terrific player at either position.

Q: Gesell broke his hand last summer, this summer he was healthy and went overseas. How much will that help him going into his junior season?

A: It was great for him; he played well against high-major competition. That's why we're thrilled those guys get to go on those trips every year. He was a big factor in some of their wins and was terrific even in some of their losses. To play at that level on that stage was good for him. He had a terrific year for us last season. He didn't play particularly well for us in his last two games and I know it can leave a bad taste in your mouth when you go through that. In his case, he's remained positive and his preparation is unsurpassed. We're thrilled with his development this summer.

Q: Thirty-one wins in Carver-Hawkeye Arena the last two years combined and a national attendance ranking of 17th last year... have the players and fans made CHA a difficult place for opponents to play?

A: No question they have. That was our plan when we got here, and I knew that would be the case. Our fans love basketball and the Hawkeyes. Generations of Iowa fans have been coming for a long time now. You'll see grandfathers and sons together, and grandmothers and granddaughters; that's what you want to see. When someone comes up to you and says, 'Hey I remember watching Ralph Miller's teams in the Field House or Tom Davis' teams in Carver,' the bottom line is they're Hawkeye fans and they want to come and see exciting basketball. They're sophisticated and know the game. Of course they want us to win every game; but they want us to play everyone the way that we've played them. Even when we've lost they've been phenomenal games. If you're a basketball purest you can appreciate what you just saw. We'll continue to do that and put the kind of product on the floor that they deserve and they, in turn, will continue to respond to our team in a way that helps us immeasurably win.

Q: There are challenges in the schedule early and often throughout the season. You think last year's difficult schedule will help this year's squad in navigating through the schedule?

A: We really amped it up last year... and with good reason, we should have. I feel we should do the same with this team. We've got experience, depth, and size. When you have those kinds of teams you have to play people. We want to provide maximum exposure for our program moving forward and that's what we're doing.

Olaseni

Sally Mason became the 20th President of the University of Iowa on August 1, 2007. She holds a full professorship with tenure in the Department of Biology in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

At Iowa, President Mason has spearheaded a sustainable university initiative, making sustainability a central priority of all aspects of the University enterprise. Currently, she is overseeing campus rebuilding in the wake of the historic 2008 flooding, especially the renewal of an arts campus for the 21st century. Under President Mason's leadership, the UI has successfully met the country's recent economic challenges through careful planning, strategic prioritization, and increased efficiency. Other major accomplishments during President Mason's tenure have been a student success initiative that has led to increased enrollment and student retention, and an expansion of partnership agreements with Iowa's community colleges that offer UI degrees to students throughout the state through on-site and distance learning programs.

The daughter of an immigrant family and the first child to attend college, President Mason received her B.A. in zoology from the University of Kentucky in 1972, her M.S. from Purdue University in 1974, and her Ph.D. in cellular, molecular, and developmental biology from the University of Arizona in 1978. She spent two postdoctoral research years at Indiana University before joining the molecular biosciences faculty at the University of Kansas in 1981, where she received awards for outstanding undergraduate advising and teaching and was awarded a prestigious Kemper Teaching Fellowship. After stints as Acting Chair of the Department of Physiology and Cell Biology and Associate Dean in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, in 1995 she was appointed Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the largest academic unit on the KU campus. President Mason served as Provost of Purdue University from 2001–2007, where she was responsible for planning, managing, and reviewing all academic programs at Purdue's West Lafayette campus and four affiliated branch campuses throughout Indiana.

President Mason is the author of many scientific papers and has obtained a number of research grants from the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, the Wesley Research Foundation, and the Lilly Endowment. Her research interests have focused on the developmental biology, genetics, and biochemistry of pigment cells and pigments in the skin of vertebrates, and she served as President of the PanAmerican Society for Pigment Cell Research. Since 2006, President Mason has been appointed by the President of the United States to three terms on the National Medal of Science President's Committee, including a term as chair. She has also served as Chair of the Advisory Committee to the National Science Foundation (NSF) Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR) and Chair of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) review panel of the NSF Science and Technology Centers Program.

President Mason has held many leadership positions in higher education and national organizations: President of the Council of Colleges of Arts and Sciences; member of the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education (ACE); member of the Executive Committee of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC); Chair of the Iowa Coordinating Council for Post-High School Education (ICCPHSE); and co-chair of the Task Force on National Energy Policy and Midwestern Competitiveness of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs.

Currently, President Mason serves as Chair-Elect of the Board of Directors Executive Committee of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU); member of the Board of Trustees of the Universities Research Association; member of the Board of Directors of Campus Compact, the national coalition of college and university presidents committed to fulfilling the civic purposes of higher education; member of the Board of Directors of the Big Ten Conference, Inc.; member of the Washington Center Council of Presidents; and member of the Board of Trustees of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library Association.

President Mason is married to Ken Mason, an educator and textbook author who teaches biology at the University of Iowa.

"Welcome to the 2014-15 season of Iowa men's basketball! My husband, Ken, and I love to watch this team play, and we are very excited to have the opportunity to again see the Hawkeyes rise to even greater heights.

All Iowa fans are looking forward to witnessing how this year's Hawkeyes build upon the success of last year's team. Returning to the NCAA Tournament a year ago has positioned the Hawkeyes for even greater achievements this year.

We are delighted that our basketball program continues to thrive under the leadership and guidance of Fran McCaffery and his experienced staff. McCaffery has more than three decades of successful collegiate coaching experience that includes a championship pedigree, and we are excited to watch him lead our superb student-athletes. He has built a solid foundation, and the potential of this year's team really has Hawkeye fans buzzing.

I am equally impressed by the accomplishments of our men's basketball team in the academic arena and in community service as I am by their talent on the court. Like so many of our student-athletes, these players represent the very best in intercollegiate athletics. We are proud of how our student-athletes' dedication and hard work in the classroom and on the court exemplify the UI spirit.

Our entire campus is going through a very dynamic period of renewal and growth, and our men's basketball team certainly fits into that picture. Hawkeye basketball was again one of the nation's top programs last year in terms of attendance, and I expect that this team will reward our loyal and passionate fans with another great season of basketball excitement.

As Iowa men's basketball strives for new levels of success, I will be there to support our fine student-athletes and coaches. I am proud to be a Hawkeye, and I hope you will join me for what promises to be another exciting season at Carver-Hawkeye Arena."

PRESIDENT
THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Gary Barta is entering his ninth year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa and his 27th year as a university leader.

The 2014-15 athletics season at the UI will build on significant momentum gained a year ago as a result of multiple successes competitively, academically, and in positive community impact displayed by Iowa coaches, student-athletes, and administrators. Last year also included record-setting fundraising support and corporate participation, as well as the completion of facility construction projects critical to the long-term success of the Iowa Hawkeyes.

Progress and success on the fields, courts, tracks, and mats was significant in 2013-14. A return to participation in a postseason bowl game by the Iowa football team, a return to the NCAA Tournament by the UI's men's basketball team, a fourth place national finish in wrestling, the seventh straight NCAA Tournament appearance by Iowa women's basketball, an invitation to the postseason Big Ten Tournament by the Hawkeye baseball team, postseason NCAA competition for Iowa's men's golf team, and the UI's track and field men's and women's track and field teams, and a historic first time invitation to the NCAA Tournament for women's soccer highlighted the 2013-14 year competitively for the UI.

In fact, only six other programs in the country in addition to the UI had its football team appear in a New Year's Day bowl, and both its men's and women's basketball teams compete in the NCAA Tournament.

Iowa's women's soccer team opened its season with eight straight victories, advanced to the championship game of the 2013 Big Ten Soccer Tournament, and received the first invitation to the postseason national championship in school history. The Hawkeyes also established a school record for attendance when more than 1,500 were on hand for Iowa's 3-0 victory over Iowa State in the annual Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series match.

Kirk Ferentz' Iowa football team doubled its win total from the previous season, won three "Trophy Games" – the Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series, Floyd of Rosedale, and the Hy-Vee Heroes Game – all on the road, and ended the regular season with victories over Michigan and at Nebraska en route to an invitation to the 2014 Outback Bowl. It marked the 12th bowl game and seventh January bowl game under Ferentz and signaled a return to the national stage for the Hawkeyes. It also came with an extra bonus: The Hawkeyes travelled to Tampa as one of just 17 bowl-bound college football teams with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) greater than 80 (Iowa's was 81) and as the highest ranked Big Ten team participating in a bowl game, according to GSR.

Fran McCaffery continued his revitalization of the UI's men's basketball program by guiding the Hawkeyes to their first NCAA Tournament in seven years. The Hawkeyes won 20 or more games for the second straight season and climbed as high as 10th in the national rankings. The Hawkeyes' 2013-14 season came to an official close in June when Devyn Marble was selected in the second round of the NBA Draft. Marble became the first Hawkeye to be selected in the draft since Adam Haluska's selection in 2007.

Rick Heller surprised the country by guiding the Hawkeye baseball team to 30 victories and participation in the 2014 Big Ten Baseball Tournament – in his first season as the UI's head coach. It was Iowa's first appearance in the league's postseason tournament in four years. Five Hawkeyes were named All-Big Ten and three were selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball Draft.

Lisa Bluder's Iowa women's basketball team won a school-record-tying 27 games – including 14 on Mediacom Court in Carver-Hawkeye Arena en route to its seventh straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a number that only 13 other programs across the country can match. Postseason play was particularly fun for the Hawkeyes: Iowa won three games to advance to the championship game of the 2014 Big Ten Tournament and won its first round game in NCAA Tournament play for the second straight season.

Mark Hankins' men's golf squad made it six straight post-season invitations when the Hawkeyes were sent to participate in the 2014 NCAA Regional in Columbia, Missouri. The Hawkeyes advanced on the strength of a regular season that included three first-place finishes and a third-place finish at the 2014 Big Ten Conference Championship, a performance that included the low team score for the event's final round.

Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling team crowned one national champion and had six Hawkeyes earn All-American status en route to a fourth place finish at the 2014 national championship.

Long-time director of track Larry Wiecezorek announced his retirement the week before Iowa sent 11 student-athletes to compete in eight different events at the 2014 NCAA Division I Track and Field Championships. The Hawkeyes responded with all earning All-America status including senior Zinnia Miller, who was honored for her efforts in the long jump and triple jump, and freshman Brittany Brown, who was honored for her success in the 200-meters and as a member of Iowa's 400-meter relay team.

The year was also busy administratively for Barta with the hiring of a new deputy director of athletics – Gene Taylor, the long-time director of athletics at North Dakota State University who began his career at the United States Naval Academy. Barta hired Iowa City native Bond Shymansky to lead the UI volleyball program and another Iowa City native, Joey Woody, to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Wiecezorek.

Shymansky has had tremendous success since beginning his coaching career at Iowa City High School, most recently as the head coach at Marquette University. Woody, a four-time All-American and world champion, has played an instrumental role in Iowa's recent successes on the track as an associated head coach for track and field for the Hawkeyes.

Academic success by the more than 600 student-athletes who participate in 24 sport programs has always been one of the very highest priorities at the University of Iowa and remains so today under Barta's direction. That commitment to the "student" in "student-athlete" resulted in a record-setting NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 88, a mark that was a full seven percentage points better than the national average. The GSR's for Iowa's football (82), men's basketball (89), and women's basketball (100) all bested the national averages for their sport: 70, 68 and 86, respectively.

In addition, the NCAA's 2013 graduation report also revealed that Iowa's federal graduation rate of 72 was seven points better than its peers nationally and two point better than its peers on the UI campus. Paced by all-time high scores in nine sports programs, all of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs were determined by the NCAA in spring 2014 to be achieving at a rate academically that surpassed the national benchmark.

Barta also believes strongly that his staff and student-athletes contribute to the community. That commitment manifests itself in literally thousands of hours of community service annually. The Hawkeyes' efforts in 2013-14 included a leadership role in "Herky on Parade," the largest public art program staged in the state of Iowa which the UI Athletics Department executes in cooperation with the Iowa City Coralville Convention and Visitors Bureau. It is anticipated that the Parade will bring tens of thousands of visitors to the greater UI, Iowa City, Coralville, and North Liberty community this spring, summer, and fall, and a six-figure contribution to the United Way of Johnson County and the United Way of Washington County when the project is completed.

The UI Athletics Department also stages an annual "Day of Caring" each April where student-athletes of all 24 of the UI's sports teams provide assistance to a wide variety of not-for-profit organizations. The UI football program also stages annually the Iowa Ladies Football Academy. That effort has generated more than $1 million of support for the new University of Iowa Children's Hospital.

The Hawkeyes' success academically and in competition also fueled interest in the Hawkeyes to levels matched by less than a handful of Iowa's peers: The UI is one of only four programs in the country to have its football, men's basketball, and women's basketball programs all rank among the nation's Top 25 in attendance.

Iowa also once again led the nation in attendance for wrestling and continues to rank among the leaders in Facebook and Twitter measures, and also traffic to its official World Wide Web site, hawkeyesports.com. In fact, 2013-14 was the busiest athletics year in the history of hawkeyesports.com in terms of unique visitors (4.3 million) and the second busiest in terms of total pages downloaded (22.8 million).

Barta has successfully leveraged the burgeoning interest in the Hawkeyes to drive fundraising and corporate support of the UI Athletics Department to record levels. Private gifts to the National I-Club for annual giving and support of capital projects exceeded $28 million in 2013-14. Participation in the offerings of Hawkeye Sports Properties, the exclusive multi-media partner of the UI Athletics Department, resulted in a record $6.1 million of revenue in 2013-14.

These sources of income help Barta to fund an $85 million annual operations budget, a budget that is 100 percent self-generated – the UI receives no state tax dollars to operate its intercollegiate athletics program – and profitable in spite of scholarship costs that will easily exceed $10 million in 2014-15. The UI Athletics Department also is responsible for such things as medical expenses for its student-athletes ($800,000 in 2013-14), the cost of utilities to operate its facilities ($400,000 last year), and, of course, salaries and benefits for the more 225 full-time employees.

Barta has also used private and corporate support to enhance the infrastructure used by Iowa's sports programs. For example, the Hawkeye football program will move into the $55 million state-of-the-art Richard O. Jacobson Football Operations Building that includes the Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center in late summer. To date, more than $35 million of private support has been generated for this important project.

Completion of the home of the nationally ranked Iowa football program will mean the UI Athletics Department will have invested more than $220 million in construction and renovation under Barta's leadership. The list of projects completed under Barta's direction includes an investment in technology at historic Kinnick Stadium that includes a new sound system to be installed prior to the 2014 season, construction of the Hoak Family Golf Complex, the revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, construction of the P. Sue Beckwith, M.D., Boathouse, the UI Athletics Department's contribution to the construction of the Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, replacement of the turf at Grant Field, installation of artificial turf at Duane Banks Field, and resurfacing of the outdoor courts at the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex.

The work is not complete, however. The UI Athletics Department this fall will begin installation of a new video wall, outfield fence, and artificial turf in the outfield of Duane Banks Field. Barta and his team are busy investigating the finalization of a master facilities plan that includes the expansion of "Hawkeye Campus," the current home of the Iowa field hockey and soccer programs, UI Sports Medicine, the UI Athletics Hall of Fame and Museum, a new indoor turf facility that also includes an outdoor surface to be used as the practice field for the Hawkeye Marching Band, and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex located on the far western edge of the UI's campus adjacent to the UI's Finkbine Golf Course and near the UI's Ashton Cross Country Course.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City communities extends far beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008 and will be directly involved in positioning the UI for growth in the immediate and long-term future as the institution adjusts to a shift in the funding model used by the State of Iowa's Board of Regents.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his tenure at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Barta remains active on the Conference and NCAA level. He is involved in committee work with NCAA Football, the Division IA Athletic Directors Association, and is an ongoing participant in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, including the United Way of Johnson County and the Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the Department has just completed a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (16) and a daughter, Madison (14). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

In his first four years as the University of Iowa head men's basketball coach, Fran McCaffery has brought enthusiasm and excitement back to the Hawkeye basketball program. After 18 seasons as a head coach, he has coached his teams to six NCAA tournaments and three NITs, posting a record of 325-240 (.575).

Since taking over the program in 2010, the Hawkeyes have vaulted back to national prominence. After a 25-win season, including an upper division finish in the Big Ten and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, McCaffery coached the Hawkeyes to another first division finish in 2014 and earned Iowa's first NCAA Tournament berth in eight seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.

The positive steps McCaffery has taken the Iowa men's basketball program in four seasons are par-for-the-course for a coach who has demonstrated his ability to rebuild programs. McCaffery coached Iowa to the 2014 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just 12 Division I head coaches to take four different programs to the NCAA Tournament.

McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have made Carver-Hawkeye Arena one of the most feared arenas to play in nationally. Fans have embraced McCaffery and his team's style of play, with attendance increasing by a staggering 57 percent since 2010. Iowa sold out 11 games in 2014, which is the most sell outs by Iowa since 2001-02. The Hawkeyes continue to feed off the energy in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, winning 20-straight games between January, 2013 and January 2014; one win shy of equaling the school record for consecutive victories. Furthermore, the Hawkeyes won a school-record 18 home games in 2013 and Iowa's 2014 senior class won 53 home games, which tie for fourth-most by a graduating class.

Iowa has finished sixth in the Big Ten -- the toughest league in the country -- the last two seasons. McCaffery has accumulated 14 upper division finishes in 18 seasons as a head coach. Overall, the Hawkeyes have amassed 45 victories the last two seasons combined, including 25 wins in 2013, which equaled the second-most in school history (2006). Iowa has won 20 or more games the last two seasons, marking the first time since 2004-05/2005-06 seasons the Hawkeyes posted consecutive 20+ win campaigns.

McCaffery's up-tempo style of play is a favorite among his players. This past season, Iowa averaged 81.5 points per game, a scoring output that was tops in the Big Ten and 10th nationally. The 81.5 average is the highest by an Iowa team since 1995 (83.6 ppg) and the second-highest by a Fran McCaffery-coached team (Lehigh's 1988 squad average 82.0 ppg).

McCaffery has posted eight seasons of 20 wins or more as a head coach, including six in the last eight years. McCaffery, who won his 300th career game as a head coach on March 9, 2013, against Nebraska, has served as head coach at four institutions: Iowa, Siena, UNC-Greensboro and Lehigh. The four teams had a combined record of 35-84 (.204) the season prior to his arrival. By year three, they had a total record of 89-45 (.664).

McCaffery continues to create interest with recruits on a national level due to his tireless work ethic. McCaffery's is a proven recruiter, demonstrated by he and his staff signing the 25th-best recruiting class in the country prior to the 2012-13 season. His 2014 recruiting class includes the nation's top-rated junior college point guard, Trey Dickerson.

McCaffery has coached Iowa to 18 or more victories the last three seasons (2012-14). The last time an Iowa coach won 18+ games in three consecutive seasons was 1997-99 by Tom Davis. In 2012, McCaffery guided the Hawkeyes to 18 wins and an NIT bid. Iowa improved by seven wins from 2011 to 2012. Additionally, he led Iowa to four more Big Ten victories in 2012 than in 2011. McCaffery was one of only four Big Ten coaches to record four wins over ranked opponents in 2012, and the only one to accomplish the feat with an unranked team.

McCaffery continues to get the most of his talent, coaching Matt Gatens, Melsahn Basabe, Bryce Cartwright, Roy Devyn Marble and Aaron White to All-Big Ten status the past four seasons. Last season, Marble became Iowa's first honoree on the all-conference first team since 2007, while White was recognized on the third team for the second straight season. Additionally, Marble was named NABC and USBWA all-district.

McCaffery, who has three decades of collegiate basketball coaching experience, was named the University of Iowa's 22nd head men's basketball coach on Monday, March 29, 2010. McCaffery, 55, came to Iowa after spending five successful seasons at Siena.

McCaffery's five years at Siena have been the best in its 70-year history. He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three-straight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title 2008-10.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 record in his five years with the program. After orchestrating the fifth greatest turnaround in Division I play his first year, McCaffery led Siena to a 20-win season and a MAAC Championship game appearance in his second. In 2007-08, Siena took its biggest step forward under his direction, earning the MAAC regular-season and tournament championship, as well as an NCAA Tournament first-round win over Vanderbilt. In 2008-09, Siena repeated the feat, winning the regular-season title before capturing the tournament crown. The Saints went on to defeat Ohio State 74-72 in double overtime in one of the tournament's most exciting games.

In 2010, McCaffery led Siena to its fourth straight 20-win season, something never before achieved in program history. Siena ran away with the league title, clinching the No. 1 seed in the tournament and ultimately knocking off Fairfield in the MAAC title game. Siena's bid for a third consecutive NCAA Tournament first-round victory was ended by No. 4 seed Purdue in Spokane, Wash. For his efforts, he was named the NABC District I Coach of the Year.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year is the third-winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins.

In 2008, McCaffery became just the 31st coach (15th active) to take three different programs to the "Big Dance", and he is the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues (conference's that sent just one team the year his program advanced). He also boasted a 100 percent graduation rate among student-athletes he has recruited who have exhausted their eligibility during his tenure.

In 2008-09, the Siena program enjoyed unprecedented success. McCaffery challenged the Saints with the most difficult schedule in program history and Siena responded by equaling a program-record with 27 wins. For the second straight year, the Saints captured the hearts of college basketball fans across the country by advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a breathtaking 74-72 double-overtime win over Ohio State. Siena nearly scored an upset of epic proportions, leading top overall seed Louisville late in the second half, but ultimately lost in the second round. Siena claimed its second-straight MAAC Tournament title and finished the season ranked 28th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and 19th in the final RPI.

The 2007-08 season will also go down as one of the most memorable in Siena basketball history. The regular-season featured a home win over No. 20 Stanford, a third-straight victory over cross-town rival Albany and a Bracket Busters win at WAC Champion Boise State. The Saints also rallied to earn a share of the MAAC regular-season title and the No. 1 seed in the MAAC Tournament. But it was Siena's post-season run that would turn the season into a breakthrough year.

Siena pounded Rider in the MAAC title game on its home floor to earn the MAAC's automatic bid. Less than two weeks later, McCaffery put together the perfect game plan and Siena led from start-to-finish in a triumph over Vanderbilt. Many considered the victory the greatest in school history, challenged at the time only by the program's 1989 upset of Stanford in the NCAA first round. Villanova ended the Saints' run in the second round.

McCaffery inherited a depleted Siena team that was picked last in the 10-team MAAC in 2005-2006. Instead, the Saints finished conference play in fourth place, earning a bye to the quarterfinals of the MAAC Tournament.

Siena showed steady improvement under McCaffery's tutelage in 2006-07, posting a 20-12 overall record and tying for third place in the MAAC with a 12-6 finish. McCaffery's Saints were the highest scoring team in the league, and they peaked at the right time, winning seven of their last eight regular-season games and advancing to play for the league championship.

McCaffery orchestrated the turnaround with stellar recruiting and bold vision. His first recruit - senior Kenny Hasbrouck - graduated as the most important player in program history. He was named MAAC Rookie of the Year as a freshman, MAAC second team and all-Tournament team as a sophomore, collegeinsider.com Mid Major Player of the Year, MAAC first team and MAAC Tournament MVP as a junior and MAAC Player of the Year, MAAC Tournament MVP, NABC All-District and MAAC first team as a senior.

His second class (first full class) is widely regarded as the best in program history. Edwin Ubiles, Alex Franklin and Ronald Moore finished their four-year careers with a 97-38 (.719) overall record, three MAAC Championships in four title game appearances, three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and two NCAA Tournament first round victories. Ubiles was a two-time MAAC first team, NABC All District first team and MAAC Tournament team selection and the 2007 MAAC co-Rookie of the Year. Alex Franklin, a two-time NABC All District selection, earned 2008 and 2009 MAAC second team and MAAC Tournament team honors. He won the 2010 MAAC Player of the Year award (Siena's second straight) and the 2010 MAAC Tournament MVP. Ronald Moore, the pulse of the team, earned 2009 MAAC second team and 2010 MAAC first team honors as well as a spot on the 2010 MAAC Tournament team. He became the MAAC's all-time assists leader in the 2010 MAAC Championship game.

In total, four Saints were named to either the first or second All-MAAC team in 2009, newcomer Kyle Downey was an All-Rookie selection and Clarence Jackson was named MAAC Sixth Man of the Year.

McCaffery was introduced as Siena's 14th head men's basketball coach on April 1, 2005. For over 20 years, he has enjoyed great success coaching Division I basketball and developing student-athletes on and off the court. McCaffery has recruited and coached several players who have gone on to play basketball professionally, some at the highest level.

McCaffery took over at Siena from UNC-Greensboro, where he posted a 90-87 record in six seasons. In his first year at the helm, Greensboro compiled a 15-13 record overall and a 9-7 Southern Conference mark, good for third place in the North Division. It was the 18th-most improved record nationally among NCAA Division I teams.

In McCaffery's second season, he guided the Spartans to unprecedented heights with a 19-12 record and the 2001 SoCon Tournament Championship. The Spartans defeated Chattanooga, 67-66, in the finals and received the SoCon's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The following year (2001-02) McCaffery led the Spartans to their first 20-win season since joining the conference. It marked the first time the program claimed a share of the SoCon North Division title as well. After falling to eventual tournament champion Davidson in the conference tournament semifinals, the Spartans were awarded a berth into the 2002 NIT, where they lost to eventual champion Memphis.

In his final year in Greensboro, McCaffery brought the Spartans to the brink of the NCAA Tournament before a SoCon Championship game loss to Chattanooga. He led UNCG to a victory over Davidson in the semifinals, defeating a team that had been 16-0 in conference play. A big part of that success was SoCon Freshman of the Year Kyle Hines. Hines set UNCG and So-Con records for blocked shots, and also broke several other UNCG single-game and freshman single-season marks.

McCaffery spent the 11 years prior to his arrival at Greensboro at the University of Notre Dame as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, working on the staffs of Richard "Digger" Phelps and John MacLeod.

Among the players he recruited to play for Notre Dame were Pat Garrity, CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in 1998, and Troy Murphy, the Big East Player of the Year in 2000 and an eventual first-round NBA draft pick. Garrity was also a first-round NBA draft pick and the Big East Player of the Year in 1997. In addition to Murphy and Garrity, McCaffery was involved in recruiting NBA First Round picks LaPhonso Ellis (1992 Draft, #5 Denver), Monty Williams (1994 Draft, #24 New York) and Ryan Humphrey (2002 Draft, #19-Utah Jazz).

He helped the Irish to NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990. Notre Dame reached the NIT finals in 1992, losing to Virginia in overtime, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the event in 1997.

At 26, McCaffery was the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was hired Sept. 11, 1985, at Lehigh. McCaffery capped his three-year tenure with the Engineers with a 21-win season and an NCAA berth in 1988.

In three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he compiled a 49-39 overall record and guided the team to the NCAA Tournament in 1988. At the time he was the youngest head coach to reach the NCAA Tournament. His Lehigh teams had two winning seasons in three years and the 1987-88 squad's 21-10 record remains the best in program history. Lehigh had just four winning seasons in the 55 years prior to his arrival.

McCaffery was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Lehigh from 1983-85 and helped the team to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1985. As recruiting coordinator, he helped sign Darren Queenan '88, who remains Lehigh's all-time leading scorer. Queenan was second in the nation in scoring in 1988, and went on to play in the USBL.

McCaffery was assistant varsity coach and head sub-varsity coach at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, during the 1982-83 season. At Penn, he worked for Craig Littlepage, who is now the director of athletics at the University of Virginia.

McCaffery lettered three years as point guard on the men's basketball team at Pennsylvania as one of the first transfers to play for the Quakers. He earned a bachelor of science degree from The Wharton School of Finance and Commerce in 1982. In 1985 he received his master's degree in education from Lehigh.

In three seasons as a player he helped lead Penn to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and Ivy League titles and one berth in the NIT. As a senior in 1981-82 he led the Ivy League in steals and assists and was voted the team's Most Inspirational Player.

Recruited as the successor at point guard to Skip Brown at Wake Forest, McCaffery played one season at Wake Forest, 1977-78, helping the Demon Deacons to a 19-10 record. Nicknamed "White Magic," he started 11 of 28 games as coach Carl Tacy's team finished runner-up in the ACC Tournament to eventual NCAA runner-up Duke. Wake defeated North Carolina twice in three meetings and won five of the eight games it played at the Greensboro Coliseum.

McCaffery, a Philadelphia native who attended LaSalle High School, and his wife Margaret have four children: sons, Connor, Patrick and Jonathan and a daughter, Marit. The McCaffery's have been actively involved in Coaches vs. Cancer and American Cancer Society's Relay For Life.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT FRAN MCCAFFERY

"We are thrilled to have Fran McCaffery lead our men's basketball program. From the first day I met Coach McCaffery he said, 'I want to be the coach at Iowa.' He is a proven winner, a leader, has competed for championships and will continue to do so. Coach McCaffery is committed to student-athletes, their personal lives, and their education. Every one of his student-athletes who has completed their eligibility has graduated."

Gary Barta
Director of Athletics
University of Iowa

"Fran McCaffery adds a different flavor and is good for the Big Ten. This is going to be a very attractive program for highly skilled players. He comes in with a system that advocates putting the biscuit in the basket, putting points on the board. That's going to be fun. There's no doubt in my mind that when Fran gets this thing going, Iowa City is going to be on fire. He's going to get players, not just because of his system but because he can coach. They're going to score in the 90s, or the high 80s."

Gus Johnson
College Basketball Analyst

"Coach McCaffery did one of the best coaching jobs in the Big Ten this season (2011)."

Wayne Larrivee
College Basketball Announcer, BTN

Andy Katz, ESPN.com Senior College Basketball Writer

"If Iowa's rationale was hiring a quality person who recruits quality people, who doesn't cheat, does it the right way and is into developing young men while recognizing that he wants to have a winning team on the floor... then Fran is the perfect guy for the job."

LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"When a parent passes their kid over to Fran they can rest assured a few things. One, he's going to make sure, to the best of his ability, that he gets a quality degree. Secondly, he is going to do his very best to develop that individual player within the team context. And finally, because of the vast resources of people that he knows outside of the game that he will do his very best, for those who aren't fortunate to play at the next level, to use his influence to make sure they get jobs and have an opportunity to have upward mobility. That's what makes him special."

LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"I was really impressed watching Iowa the other day. I thought they paid attention to (Fran McCaffery) and did what he wanted them to do."

Brent Musburge, ESPN Announcer

"I think Iowa made an outstanding choice. Fran McCaffery-coached teams are well coached and very well organized."

Ronnie Lester
UI All-American

"Fran McCaffery is a good solid hire for the University of Iowa. Iowa has been hoping for a winner and I believe one has arrived. He's won at Lehigh, UNC-Greensboro and Siena -- if you can win at those places, you can win anywhere. His teams are enjoyable to watch with their style of play; he lets his kids play free. If Iowa fans give Fran a little time, he'll get the Hawkeyes back to the NCAA Tournament on a yearly basis."

Doug Gottlieb, CBS Analyst

"Fran McCaffery is a fine basketball coach, and an even finer person. He can teach the game, identify and attract talent, and he is a man of great substance and integrity. Iowa made a great hire in McCaffery."

Jay Bilas, ESPN and CBS Analyst

"Fran McCaffery is a great hire for Iowa. He was a great assistant coach and did a great job in making Siena the Gonzaga of the east. He will bring back the traditions of Iowa basketball."

Digger Phelps

Former Head Coach, Notre Dame

"Iowa hired a class act. Respected by his coaching peers, Coach McCaffery is a proven winner who rebuilt the Siena Saints program in quick fashion by being a relentless recruiter who instilled an up tempo style that fans loved and players embraced. During the search process he expressed his vision for the future of the Hawkeye program, while understanding the proud tradition of University of Iowa Basketball."

Bobby Hansen
UI Final Four Member, 1980
World Champion, Chicago Bulls
Hawkeye Radio Network Analyst

"The number one thing about Fran, is that he has a great feel for the game, and, he understands players. He and I spent a lot of time in traversing the state of Iowa, trying to get Iowa kids to come to Notre Dame. Fran has a great knack for setting an offense and he is a great defensive coach. He has great relationships with his players. This is a great fit for Iowa and a great fit for Fran."

John MacLeod
Former Head Coach, Notre Dame
Former Head Coach, Golden State

"I have been impressed with Coach McCaffery's consistent success, most recently at Siena. His teams are well prepared and his development of players, particularly on the perimeter, should fit in well with the young roster in Iowa City."

Shon Morris, BTN Analyst

"You have to love what coach McCaffery has going at the University of Iowa. He's continues to create interest on a national level. They play a great style of basketball; they press, run and jump, fast break and shoot a lot of three's. High school guys always say that they want to go to a coach who is going to let them play... well, Fran McCaffery is that coach who let's his guys play."

Note: Number in parenthesis following opponent is national ranking

Kirk Speraw is in his fifth year as an assistant coach at Iowa. Speraw, who has over three decades of coaching experience, assists in all aspects of the program including recruiting, opponent scouting, practices, player development and game preparation.

Speraw has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by 57 percent, but Speraw has helped vault the program back to national prominence.

After a 25-win season, including an upper division finish in the Big Ten and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, Speraw helped coach the Hawkeyes to another first division finish in 2014 and earn Iowa's first NCAA Tournament berth in eight seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.

The past four years at Iowa, Speraw helped coach five Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Roy Devyn Marble who was selected by the Orlando Magic in the 2014 NBA Draft.

Speraw and the Hawkeyes amassed 25 wins in 2013, which match the second-most by any Hawkeye team in history. Additionally, Iowa won a school-record 18 games in 2013.

Iowa has won 20 or more games the last two seasons, marking the first time since 2004-05/2005-06 seasons the Hawkeyes posted consecutive 20+ win campaigns.

Speraw helped mentor Melsahn Basabe, Bryce Cartwright, Roy Devyn Marble, Matt Gatens and Aaron White to all-Big Ten status the past four seasons, including Marble's recognition as an all-district honoree in 2014.

Speraw, who is a Sioux City, Iowa, native was a two-time Hawkeye letterman (1978-79) who played for head coach Lute Olson. He was a member of the 1978-79 squad that won 20 contests and a Big Ten title. As a senior, he was named the team's most inspirational player.

As both an assistant and head coach, Speraw has mentored dozens of players who have played professionally, including Hawkeyes Ronnie Lester, Steve Krafcsin, Vince Brookins, Steve Waite, Kenny Arnold, Kevin Boyle, Mark Gannon and Bobby Hansen.

Speraw began his coaching career with the Hawkeyes, serving as a graduate assistant with Iowa's 1979-80 team that advanced to the Final Four. The Hawkeyes went 23-8 that season. Speraw then moved to Denver University, where he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for two years (1980-82).

Speraw joined the Hawkeyes after serving 17 years as head coach at the University of Central Florida (1993-2010). During his tenure, 18 of his players received all-league honors, including four first team honorees. Additionally, since the start of the 1993-94 season, 54 of Speraw's UCF student-athletes earned academic all-conference recognition.

His tenure included four NCAA Tournament berths (1994, '96, '04 and '05). In 2006-07, he was recognized as Conference USA Coach of the Year after guiding the Knights to 22 victories and a second place league finish. His most successful season at UCF was in 2003-04, when the Knights finished 25-6, received votes in the top 25 and won the Atlantic Sun championship, earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his head coaching job at UCF, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Florida for three seasons (1990-93) under Head Coach Lon Kruger. While on the Florida staff, the Gators participated in two NIT's, including advancing to the semifinals in 1992.

Prior to his three years in Gainesville, Speraw was the head coach at Pensacola Junior College (PJC) from 1987-90. At PJC, he led the Pirates to an 82-21 record and three consecutive Panhandle Conference titles. His 1989-90 team won 31 games and finished fifth nationally. The team's success that year earned Speraw national recognition. He was tabbed the NABC/Kodak National Junior College Coach of the Year, as well as the state's Coach of the Year.

Speraw also had a coaching stop at Florida Southern, serving as an assistant from 1982-87. The Moccasins posted a 100-46 record and made four appearances in the Division II NCAA Tournament, including a third-place finish in 1986.

Speraw and his wife, Tracy (an Iowa City native), have two sons, Drew and Dustin, and two daughters, Brooke and Bailey. Drew played for his dad at Central Florida for four years.

Sherman Dillard is in his fifth year with the University of Iowa men's basketball staff bringing a wealth of expertise on and off the court.

Dillard has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by 57 percent, but Dillard has helped vault the program back to national prominence.

After a 25-win season, including an upper division finish in the Big Ten and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, Dillard helped coach the Hawkeyes to another first division finish in 2014 and earn Iowa's first NCAA Tournament berth in eight seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.

The past four years at Iowa, Dillard helped coach five Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Roy Devyn Marble who was selected by the Orlando Magic in the 2014 NBA Draft.

Dillard and the Hawkeyes amassed 25 wins in 2013, which match the second-most by any Hawkeye team in history. Additionally, Iowa won a school-record 18 games in 2013.

Iowa has won 20 or more games the last two seasons, marking the first time since 2004-05/2005-06 seasons the Hawkeyes posted consecutive 20+ win campaigns.

Dillard helped mentor Melsahn Basabe, Bryce Cartwright, Roy Devyn Marble, Matt Gatens and Aaron White to All-Big Ten status the past four seasons, including Marble's recognition as an all-district honoree in 2014.

Dillard has nearly three decades of coaching experience, serving as a college assistant or head coach for 29 years. He spent his first 15 years as an assistant coach at three institutions. Dillard began his coaching career under Head Coach Lefty Driesell at Maryland, spending six seasons (1979-85). He helped coach the Terrapins to four 20-plus win seasons and six post-season appearances, including five NCAA Tournament berths. The 1980, 1984 and 1985 squads reached the Sweet 16, while the 1984 team won the ACC Tournament.

He then spent three years at California (1985-88) under Lou Campanelli, who was his collegiate coach at James Madison. The Bears posted two third-place Pac-10 finishes and two NIT appearances during his tenure in Berkeley. After three seasons at California, he returned to the ACC and Georgia Tech for six seasons (1988-94). While in Atlanta, he helped Head Coach Bobby Cremins lead the Yellow Jackets to six winning seasons and postseason appearances. Georgia Tech played in five NCAA Tournaments, including the Final Four in 1990 and Sweet 16 in 1992.

Dillard received his first head coaching opportunity at Indiana State of the Missouri Valley Conference (1994-97). During his three seasons in Terre Haute, the Sycamores improved each season and posted a 29-52 record. He then left Indiana State to return to his alma mater. He replaced Driesell, who served as head coach the previous nine seasons (1988-97). Dillard was the Dukes' head coach for seven years (1997-2004). He posted a 93-106 record, sharing a league title and recording three first-division finishes in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). During his tenure, he earned CAA Coach of the Year and NABC District Coach of the Year laurels. His 10-year head coaching record stands at 122-158.

Dillard, a three-time academic all-American and four-time honorable mention all-American by the Associated Press, played guard at James Madison (1973-78). He led the Dukes in scoring in each of his four years (missed 1976-77 with an injury) and was the team's top rebounder as a freshman. Andrew Francis is in his fifth year as an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes and eighth season on head coach Fran McCaffery's staff. He was the first hire for McCaffery at Iowa, joining the staff on April 8, 2010.

Francis has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by 57 percent, but Francis has helped vault the program back to national prominence.

After a 25-win season, including an upper division finish in the Big Ten and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, Francis helped coach the Hawkeyes to another first division finish in 2014 and earn Iowa's first NCAA Tournament berth in eight seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.

The past four years at Iowa, Francis helped coach five Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Roy Devyn Marble who was selected by the Orlando Magic in the 2014 NBA Draft.

Francis and the Hawkeyes amassed 25 wins in 2013, which match the second-most by any Hawkeye team in history. Additionally, Iowa won a school-record 18 games in 2013.

Iowa has won 20 or more games the last two seasons, marking the first time since 2004-05/2005-06 seasons the Hawkeyes posted consecutive 20+ win campaigns.

Francis helped mentor Melsahn Basabe, Bryce Cartwright, Roy Devyn Marble, Matt Gatens and Aaron White to all-Big Ten status the past four seasons, including Marble's recognition as an all-district honoree in 2014.

Francis served three years on McCaffery's staff as an assistant coach at Siena (2007-10). While on the Saints' coaching staff, he helped guide Siena to three straight conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths, and four consecutive 20-plus win seasons. Francis helped coach six all-conference student-athletes, two Player of the Year honorees and the league's Sixth Man of the Year.

He arrived at the Siena program after a two year stint at Villanova University, where he served as an administrative assistant/video coordinator on Jay Wright's staff.

While at Siena, Francis assisted in all aspects of the program, including: recruiting, player development and scouting.

A Brooklyn, NY, native, Francis joined the Wildcats' staff in August, 2005. He assisted the program in a variety of roles while directing the video operations of the basketball office.

Francis is a 1992 graduate of Brooklyn's Abraham Lincoln High School. He played basketball at Fulton Montgomery Community College in Johnstown, NY, before completing his college career under Coach Sidney Green at Long Island University-Southampton. Francis graduated in 1998 with a degree in marketing and management.

After a knee injury ended his professional playing career, Francis became a volunteer assistant coach at Concordia College. From 2003-05, he served as the head women's coach at Mt. St. Vincent College, compiling a 26-27 record. In addition, he served as a volunteer assistant coach for the Westchester Wildfire of the United States Basketball League.

Billy Taylor is in his second season as the program's director of basketball operations.

Taylor works closely with the basketball staff, helping coordinate travel and carry out the day-to-day activities of the UI basketball program.

Taylor joined the Hawkeye staff after 15 years of collegiate coaching experience. He served the last 11 years as a head coach, most recently the last six seasons at Ball State (2007-13). During his tenure, the Cardinals finished either first or second in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) West Division three times and advanced to the MAC Tournament semifinals twice. Taylor coached nine all-conference selections and also mentored a MAC All-Freshman Team member five straight seasons.

Prior to Ball State, Taylor spent five seasons as head coach at Lehigh (2002-07), where he was a two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year honoree. In his first season, Taylor was named Patriot League Coach of the Year after guiding the Mountain Hawks to the second-largest turnaround in the nation, improving on the previous year's record by 11 wins.

In 2003-04, Taylor led Lehigh to its first-ever Patriot League regular season and tournament championships, as well as a trip to the NCAA tournament. For his efforts, Taylor earned the league's Coach of the Year honor for the second time in as many seasons, becoming the first coach since Gonzaga's Mark Few to win conference coach of the year honors in each of his first two seasons as a head coach.

In 2005-06, Lehigh posted the third-most wins in school history with its 19-12 overall mark and a school-record 11 Patriot League wins.

Before taking over at Lehigh, Taylor was the top assistant for three seasons at UNC-Greensboro under McCaffrey from 1999-02. The Spartans won the Southern Conference Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record in 2000-01, before posting a 20-10 mark and an NIT appearance in 2001-02.

Taylor served as an assistant coach at Notre Dame during the 1998-99 campaign alongside McCaffery and under head coach John MacLeod. He coordinated opponent scouting reports, game preparations, preseason and postseason skill development sessions.

Taylor, who was recruited to Notre Dame by Digger Phelps, was a four-year letterwinner for the Irish. He started 79-of-112 games during his career and was the team captain as a senior. He scored 577 points and grabbed 300 rebounds, before graduating with a degree in accounting and computer applications in 1995. He also earned his CPA in 1998.

Taylor and his wife, Avlon, have two daughters, Gavielle (12) and Tamia (15), and a son, Savion (9).

2005-06 (25-9, 11-5 BIG TEN)

Iowa's senior dominated team posted a 17-0 record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena and won the 2006 Big Ten Conference Tournament in Indianapolis. The 25 wins marked the second-highest number in school history as the Hawkeyes posted a sixth consecutive winning season under Coach Steve Alford. The Hawkeyes tied for second during the regular season, one game behind Ohio State, before defeating the Buckeyes in the title game of the post-season tournament. Senior guard Jeff Horner was named MVP of the Big Ten Tournament, while senior forward Greg Brunner was named to the all-tournament team.

FIRST BASKETBALL GAME PLAYED IN IOWA CITY

Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus on January 18, 1896.

In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

The game was arranged by Iowa professor H.F. Kallenberg, who had earlier attended Springfield College, and wrote James Naismith for a copy of the rules of the game, and Amos Alonzo Stagg, a friend of Kallenberg who had become the athletic director at Chicago.
